

INSTITUTIONAL ARTICULATION AGREEMENT BETWEEN

Kalamazoo Valley Community College

and

Davenport University

Article I

Agreement on Principle

This agreement is made on [date] between the Davenport University (DU) and Kalamazoo Valley Community College (Kalamazoo Valley) (collectively, the "Parties"). The Parties wish to facilitate the transfer of students who complete an associate degree at Kalamazoo Valley to a degree program at DU. Therefore, the Parties agree to enter into an Institutional Articulation Agreement (Agreement) to assist students who want transfer with a smooth curriculum transition that minimizes loss of credit and duplication of coursework.

Article II

Agreement on Program Integrity

The Parties enter into this Agreement as cooperating, equal partners who shall maintain the integrity of their separate programs. Both Parties are accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.

Each institution will determine the satisfaction of its program and degree requirements. For the purpose of this Agreement, the Parties agree to accept transferable courses from each other and from other regionally accredited institutions, subject to the receiving institution's established transfer credit policies. Specific course requirements and transfer credits will be set forth in separate programs of study/majors, called Program Articulation Agreements.

Article III

Agreement on Program Articulation

This Agreement is designed for students who follow a prescribed plan of study leading to an associate degree at Kalamazoo Valley. The credits transferred from the Associate Degree Program will be outlined in separate Program Articulation Agreements, a sample of which is attached and will be included in the total credit hours required for the DU baccalaureate degree.

Students must also meet all other standard admission, curriculum, and graduation requirements of Kalamazoo Valley and DU Program Articulation Agreements are subject to this Agreement but will be separately developed and maintained.

Students who transfer to DU without the associate degree listed on their transcript will receive notice upon completion of the appropriate number of credit hours at DU that their transcript is being sent to Kalamazoo Valley for reverse transfer review per the Reverse Transfer Agreement between Kalamazoo Valley and DU. All correspondence regarding the results of the review will be sent directly to the student from Kalamazoo Valley.

Article IV

Agreement on Program Specifics

Program specifics will be set forth by the Parties in separate Program Articulation Agreements, which shall incorporate the terms and conditions of this Institutional Articulation Agreement. Program Articulation Agreements must be signed and dated by authorized representatives of each institution, in accordance with their institutional requirements, in order to be effective.

Kalamazoo Valley and DU agree to collaborate, via faculty, administrators, and staff at both institutions, toward the goal of facilitating the development of Program Articulation Agreements that will be subject to this Institutional Articulation Agreement.

Students applying to DU pursuant to this Institutional Articulation Agreement must adhere to the admission policies and process of DU. DU will give Kalamazoo Valley students who receive an associate degree from Kalamazoo Valley equal consideration for admission and financial aid as other students who have received associate degrees from other institutions, in accordance with all applicable requirements and criteria. DU will advise transfer students from Kalamazoo Valley to select the catalog term that most benefits the student.

Article V

Agreement on Academic Advising

DU, through the college advising office identified in each Program Articulation Agreement, and Kalamazoo Valley have joint responsibility for advising Kalamazoo Valley students regarding Program Articulation Agreements.

Article VI

Agreement on Financial Aid

There is no corresponding financial aid consortium agreement for the Agreement. Program Articulation Agreements requiring a financial aid consortium will require an addendum to be developed between the financial aid offices of the Parties and those needed to support the programs.

Article VII

Agreement on Communication

Any marketing of this Institutional Articulation Agreement or Program Articulation Agreements is subject to the prior approval of both parties and must comply with Higher Learning Commission requirements. Each institution will assume responsibility for appropriate marketing to reach their respective student and faculty populations.

The Parties agree to cooperate in communicating with each other and with their common and respective publics concerning the established relationship between the two institutions and for the purpose of monitoring and enhancing student academic success. Communication may include the development of various kinds of publications to inform those who might benefit personally or professionally from the opportunities provided by this agreement. Faculty and staff at both institutions will share the information in this agreement with interested students, and both institutions will provide academic advising and advising to students and prospective students.

The Parties will abide by confidentiality requirements set forth in the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and other applicable laws.

Article VIII

Maintenance and Review Procedures

Responsibility for oversight of the Program Articulation Agreements rests with the designee(s) of the Provost. Both Parties agree to communicate annually any changes in their respective programs that may affect this Agreement or individual Program Articulation Agreements. These changes should be communicated annually to the respective Deans, Kalamazoo Valley Registrar's Office, Kalamazoo Valley Advising and Counseling Office and DU Office of Admissions and Registrar. Each institution retains control over its curriculum, course requirements, program requirements, and degree requirements. Each institution will notify the other of any curricular changes that would affect the courses in an associated Program Articulation Agreement or that could affect the future of this agreement.

Article IX
Agreement Regarding Independent Relationship

In the performance of their respective duties and obligations under this Agreement, each party is an independent contractor and neither is the agent, employee, or servant of the other, and each is responsible only for its own conduct. Each institution is solely responsible for the development and design of its own curriculum. Changes on the part of either party will/may necessitate review of this document

Article XIII
Amendment, Modification, or Termination

No amendment or modification to this Agreement, including any modification or amendment of this paragraph, shall be effective unless the same is in writing and signed by all parties or their successors. This Agreement will be in effect immediately upon authorized signature by each Party and shall remain in effect for five years.

Each Program will review its Program Articulation Agreements annually, and will provide any changes to the respective Dean and copy the Kalamazoo Valley Registrar's Office and DU's Office of Admissions and Registrar so that Program Articulation Agreements, catalogs and websites can be updated.

Either Party may terminate this Agreement at any time with no less than sixty days' written notice. In the event that this Agreement is terminated, the Parties shall cooperate to assist currently enrolled students with completing their Program.
