

MI-ACE Women's Network Kalamazoo Chapter Presents: Women of Influence

ACE WOMEN'S Network™
Michigan

Thursday, Nov. 7 | 3:30 p.m. – 5 p.m. | Kalamazoo Valley Community College
Texas Township Campus, Rm. 4240

Featuring a panel discussion with influential women in academia from Kalamazoo Valley Community College, Western Michigan University and Kalamazoo College. The panelists are Vice President for Diversity and Inclusion, Office of Diversity and Inclusion, Western Michigan University, Candy McCorkle, Ph.D.; Vice President for College Advancement, Kalamazoo College, Karen T. Isble; and Provost and Vice President for Instruction and Student Services at Kalamazoo Valley Community College, Paige Eagan, Ph.D.

Women in academia are invited to:

- Celebrate the achievements of women leaders
- Build relationships
- Share experiences
- Foster a supportive community dedicated to advancing women in higher education

Light refreshments will be provided. Use the QR code to register by Nov. 4.

MI-ACE is committed to improving the general climate and professional environment for women by identifying, developing, encouraging, advancing, linking and supporting (IDEALS) women in higher education careers throughout the state.

Candy McCorkle, Ph.D.

Karen T. Isble

Paige Eagan, Ph.D.