

2023-2024 ENGLISH DEPARTMENT ESSAY CONTEST

Caroline Whiting, Faculty Coordinator

Turn your prose into profit and get published! Enter your essays in the Kalamazoo Valley Community College annual essay contest to be eligible to compete for cash awards and publication in the 2023-2024 edition of Winning Essays. This publication becomes part of the KVCC library's permanent collection. Entries should be essays written in English 098, 099, 110, 111, and 160, and in any 200-level English literature class. Winners will be notified by mail during the summer of 2024 as soon as the judges have made their decisions.

The Ron Miazga Memorial Award for Descriptive Writing, a category introduced in the 2012-2013 essay contest, will be part of this year's competition as well. The $150.00 award for this category's winner will recognize the essay or short fiction piece that best captures a sense of place. The winner should demonstrate effective descriptive writing, which includes such elements as specific detail, figurative language, and an appeal to multiple senses. Freshness, vividness, and inventiveness in language that put the reader in the place the writer has experienced or imagined is critical to this effort. Essays entered in this category should have been written in English 110, 111, 160, or 220 during the summer and fall of 2023 and the winter of 2024.

The official entry form is available below.

2023-2024 ENGLISH DEPARTMENT ESSAY CONTEST ENTRY FORM

Essays are due no later than 5:00 pm, Friday, May 3, 2024. Submissions, accompanied by this completed form, should be sent to: engessay@kvcc.edu.

You may submit two essays, but each one should be in a separate category. For example, you could submit a research essay for English 110 and a personal reflection essay in English 111, but not two research essays for English 110.
